

International PhD Program “Law & Social Change: The Challenges of Transnational Regulation”

Scientific Activities 2020-2021
(Section of Roma Tre)

Compulsory activities

COURSES

- 1) Advanced European Banking Law. Module on Hierarchy of sources of law in the European banking sector: the role of the global regulation produced by the Basel Committee and the role of the European authorities and Institutions (Prof. Concetta Brescia Morra). Fall Semester
 1. The Basel Committee: soft laws and global banking regulation
 2. Basel Committee Accords and the Banking Regulation in Europe
 3. The evolution of banking regulation in Europe: from the Single Market for banking services to the Banking Union (1)
 4. The evolution of banking regulation in Europe: from the Single Market for banking services to the Banking Union (2)
 5. Strengths and weakness in the global regulation for the banking sector

- 2) The Epistemology of Big Data (Prof. Stéphane Grumbach)
(Spring Semester)

- 3) Transnational Economic Law (Prof. Chris Thomale – Prof. Fiona Macmillan)
(Spring Semester)