

Law, Technologies and Society

FIRST YEAR

Fall Semester	ECTS	Spring Semester	ECTS
Introduction to Law	7	Introduction to Digital Technologies	7
Introduction to Economics	3	Space Policy and Law	7
Corporations	8	International Law	7
Economics of Digital Competition and Innovation or Economics of Globalization and Trade or Taxation, Economic Inequalities and Social Justice	7	Advanced Administrative Law	7
Elective Course	7

SECOND YEAR

Fall Semester	ECTS	Spring Semester	ECTS
Four selected elective courses	28	Four selected elective courses	28
Elective Course	7	Digital Training	4
Traineeship	4	Dissertation	17

Advanced Elective Courses available for selection include: Comparative Competition Law, Intellectual Property Law, EU Financial Law: Institutional Framework, Comparative Constitutional Law and Digital Democracy, Legal Philosophy in a Global Perspective, International Human Rights Law, Private International Law in the European Integration, European Private Law, European Biolaw and Reproductive Technologies, International Arbitration, Comparative Law of Digital Markets, International Protection of Human Rights (Legal Clinic), EU Law Moot Court Competition, Global Religious Law, Comparative Legal System, European Environmental Law, International Tax Law, Law of International Organizations, Space Policies and the Law, Legal Clinic on Migration and Asylum, Scientific Evidence and Civil Procedure, International Humanitarian Law (Legal Clinic), Capital Markets, Advanced International Law (Moot Court Competition), Critical Perspective on Private Law, Chinese Law, Roman Law, EU Transport Law, Scientific Evidence and Criminal Procedure, Advanced International Arbitration (Vis Moot), European Union Law, Law and the Humanities, Legal History, Fintech and Digital Money, Civil Procedure Law II.

Other Elective Courses may be chosen from among all courses offered by the Department.